

Prayer and Praise Update

February, 2020

Dear Praying Friends,

Greetings from the Arizona Desert!

After a 4-day trip, I arrived here in Tucson on the 2nd of February, just in time to watch the Super Bowl. I had to unload my car during halftime, so I managed to miss a rather pornographic spectacle. The LORD does protect our minds.

It's been a somewhat busy beginning to my time here. I spent most of the first week just taking care of things involved with settling in at a new address. After that, I began to receive requests for help from the folk down at the ALEM center. I have also been trying to work on a couple of personal projects, including one for a retired SIL member.

I am still on the east side of Tucson, and I will be here until the beginning of May. I am also still hoping to get together with more of you who live in this part of town. So if you live near me, please don't hesitate to take advantage of this time when I am a lot closer to you physically!

So please give thanks:

- For a safe trip from Wisconsin to Arizona.
- For the opportunity to meet with the pastor of a church interested in my ministry.
- For a good place to stay during my first 2 months in Tucson.

Please pray:

- For opportunities to share with churches and individuals about Bible translation in Brazil.
- For opportunities to get together and visit with people on the east side of Tucson, while I am here.
- That any issues at the ALEM center would be able to be dealt with remotely or by others on site during my absence.

Continuing to serve the Kingdom while on furlough,
